Issue 150

Principal's Message

Dear Parents/ Carers,

In honour of the BBC Children in Need campaign we have turned this edition of the Purple Post into the 'Pudsey Post'

Thank you so much for supporting this wonderful cause as well as sending your child in with odd socks on Wednesday to mark Anti-Bullying Week. Let's hope we raise lots of money as well as enjoying our pyjamas!

Liz Latham

The school council raised £146 for Children in Need from selling wristbands and Pudsey ear head bands.

From our Pyjama dress up day we raised £284. All together we have raised an amazing

£430. This is a fantastic amount of money. Thank you to everyone that has donated.*

Anti-Bullying Week

This week the children have been taking part in Anti-Bullying Week. Our assemblies and reflection time have been about what bullying is:

Several Times On

Purpose

Children at Queensmead are very clear that bullying behaviour is not tolerated. They know who to talk to and tell if they have worries or concerns either in the classroom or in the playground.

As well as Several Times On Purpose, our STOP message also means:

Start Telling Other People

We also took part in odd socks day to show that we are 'All Different, All Equal' we have linked this to article 19 of the UNICEF Rights for Children which states:

'Children have the right to be protected from being hurt or mistreated.'
